

Rules and Regulations
United Lost Lake Property Owners Association
Adopted February 19, 2009
Revised June 16, 2018

SECTION 1. INTRODUCTION

1.01 Introduction. These Regulations were duly considered and officially adopted by the Board of Directors of the United Lost Lake Property Owners Association (also known as the ULLPOA).

Within these Rules and Regulations are guidelines/procedures for governing activities and maintaining the integrity of the individual community while restricting individual freedom as little as possible. The Rules and Regulations should be accepted in a spirit of cooperation and that the rule of common sense prevails in those instances where the interpretation of a Rule and Regulation is in doubt, or where a specific Rule and Regulation does not exist to cover a particular situation.

The application of common sense and reasonableness, together with respect for one's neighbor and his/her property, are the primary requisites for United Lost Lake to be a truly enjoyable place to live and play.

In addition to these Rules and Regulations, please read and be familiar with the appropriate Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions, which empowers the Association with the authority to create and enforce these Regulations. All the Covenants and By-Laws are incorporated by reference and made part of these Rules and Regulations. In the event of any conflict between the Covenants, By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, the Covenants and By-Laws will supercede, respectively.

All Members of the Community are encouraged to report any violation(s) of the Rules and Regulations as outlined in Section 2, 2.05 Community Participation of the Rules and Regulations.

State and County laws and ordinances will take precedence over these Rules and Regulations except in areas where United Lost Lake has deviated for its own interest.

1.02 Member Defined. Refer to the By-Laws for the definition and privileges of a Member, Associate Member, Temporary Members/Renters, and Member in good standing.

1.03 Notice for Lease. Any Property Owner of the United Lost Lake Property Owners Association desiring to rent or lease their improved real estate to a tenant or tenants must notify the United Lost Lake Property Owners Association in writing of the intent to transfer possession of said property to a tenant. The Board recommends that the Property Owner collect a security deposit of not less than two-hundred dollars ($200) for unpaid violations/fines of their renters.

1.04 Responsibilities of Members. Each Property Owner or Member of the Association shall be jointly and severally liable and responsible for any damage to Association property or violation of the Rules and Regulations committed by a Temporary Member/Renter. Any fines or damages will be imposed upon the Property Owner or Member in the same manner as if the said violation occurred as a result of the direct conduct of the Member and collected by imposition of a fine or assessment under the procedures established in the Members' Covenants, By-Laws, or Rules and Regulations of the Association.

SECTION 2. ENFORCEMENT

2.01 State Agencies. Although the entire Development is privately owned property, remember that local law enforcement agencies have the power to enter and to make arrests for criminal trespass, disorderly conduct and infractions, which constitute legal misdemeanors or felonies.

Enforcement personnel will carry identification as evidence of the authority which has been delegated to them by the United Lost Lake Property Owners Association Board of Directors.

2.03 Notice of Alleged Violation. Notice of an alleged violation of the United Lost Lake Rules and Regulations will be served to the Property Owner, in writing, either as a citation or letter of notification and will contain the following:

1. The full name and address of the alleged accused.

5. The Membership status of the alleged accused (Member, guest, etc.)
6. The issuing authority's name and number and/or a copy of the Member Complaint Form (with the complainant's name removed).

2.04 Enforcement Procedure. If you are cited for a violation after discovery, you will be sent a written notice, specifying the time, place, and details of the violation, and designating any fine or other penalty which has been imposed. A Member may request a hearing before the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. Any fine so levied and not protested, or which is made final by the Board after protest and/or hearing, will be payable within thirty (30) days after it becomes incontestable or final; and will become a part of the assessments against your lot if it is not paid.

2.05 Community Participation. In a spirit of friendly cooperation and without vindictiveness, you are politely encouraged to remind any other Member or guest(s) of a Member about the Rules and Regulations when you see them committing some violation. If the violation continues after the Member has brought the violation to the attention of the Member and/or guest, a Member Complaint Form should be filed with the Association office, which can be downloaded from the website (discoverlostlake.org) or a copy obtained at the Association office.

2.06 Member Feedback. Members have the right to submit written input to the Board of the Association as to the effectiveness of the above rules and procedures governing the day-to-day activities.
